Collateral Consequences of a Criminal Conviction (CLE)
Monday, Dec. 11 | 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Agenda

Michael Queensland
Senior Staff Attorney, Office of Legislative Council
Wisconsin State Legislature

Patrick Guinan
Principal Research Analyst
Legislative Counsel Bureau, Nevada

John Seibler
Legal Fellow, Institute for Constitutional Government
The Heritage Foundation, Washington D.C.

Moderator

Michael Queensland
Senior Staff Attorney, Office of Legislative Council
Wisconsin State Legislature
michael.queensland@legis.wisconsin.gov

Queensland works for the Wisconsin Legislature as a senior staff attorney in the Office of the Wisconsin Legislative Council. He also serves as legislative staff vice-chair of NCSL’s Law, Criminal Justice and Public Safety Committee.

Queensland received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School and his B.S. in public administration from the University of Wisconsin.

Speakers (in order of presentation)

Patrick Guinan
Principal Research Analyst
Legislative Counsel Bureau, Nevada
PGuin@lcb.state.nv.us

Guinan received his M.A. in English from San Francisco State University, and his B.A. in English from the University of Nevada.

John Seibler
Legal Fellow, Institute for Constitutional Government
The Heritage Foundation, Washington D.C.
John.Seibler@heritage.org

John-Michael Seibler directs The Heritage Foundation’s project to counter abuse of the criminal law, particularly at the federal level, as a legal fellow in the Center for Legal and Judicial Studies, in the Institute for Constitutional Government. This “overcriminalization” project is part of Heritage’s Rule of Law initiative. He works on a variety of criminal justice issues as well as technology and regulation, and other contemporary legal issues.

John received his J.D. from Washington and Lee University School of Law and his B.A. in philosophy from Boston University.