Session Description: The U.S. Supreme Court has had a busy year of cases, many of which have meaningful implications for states. Attendees will explore these cases—from gerrymandering and elections to religious and gay rights, sports gambling and online sales taxes—and gain insider information about our nation’s highest court.

Moderator: Representative Timothy Johns, South Dakota

Biographies

Lisa Soronen
Executive Director
State and Local Legal Center
444 North Capitol Street, N.W., Suite 515
Washington, D.C. 20001
(202) 434-4845
lsoronen@sso.org

Lisa Soronen is the executive director of the State and Local Legal Center (SLLC). In this role, Lisa files amicus curiae briefs to the United States Supreme Court on behalf of members of the Big Seven in cases involving federalism. Lisa organizes moot courts for attorneys representing state and local government at the Supreme Court. She also is a resource to Big Seven members on legal issues affecting state and local government, particularly at the Supreme Court level. Prior to joining the SLLC, Lisa worked for the National School Boards Association, the Wisconsin Association of School Boards, and clerked for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. She is a graduate of Central Michigan University and earned her J.D. at the University of Wisconsin Law School.