Cybersecurity for Elections: State Policy Options

Monday, Jul. 30 | 3:15 pm-5:30 pm
304 ABC
Speakers

Matthew Masterson, Department of Homeland Security, Washington, D.C.

Maurice Turner, Center for Democracy & Technology, Washington, D.C.

Senator Henry Stern, California

Kim Wyman, Secretary of State of Washington
During this session you will....

- Learn about legislative options to secure elections, from voter registration through voting itself and on to election results reporting.

- Hear from legislators and experts who have delved deeply into cybersecurity as it applies to elections.
Did you know?

$380 million is available to states from the 2018 HAVA Election Security Grant Funds.

Funds are distributed based primarily on population.
Did you know?

- 21 state voter registration systems (at least) have been targeted by malicious actors
Did you know?

- Resources are available to states
  - Department of Homeland Security
  - Election Assistance Commission
    - Contact
  - EI-ISAC
    - Contact
Did you know?

- NCSL has a monthly election administration newsletter, The Canvass, that covers election topics like cybersecurity? To subscribe, please email thecanvass@ncsl.org.

- NCSL’s Election Security: State Policies is a resource written for legislators and legislative staff.