Tuesday July 31
Ask Me Anything (on the 2020 Census)
10:15 – 11:15 am

Senator Adam Morfeld, Nebraska
Senator Adam Morfeld serves in the Nebraska Legislature and is an adjunct faculty member teaching American Government and Public Administration at Doane University. Before he was elected to the legislature in 2014, he founded and is the executive director of the non-profit Civic Nebraska that works to build youth and adult civic leadership skills and ensure a modern democracy. Senator Morfeld is the third youngest member of the Legislature and a member of both the Education and Judiciary Committees. He graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with his bachelor’s degree in political science and received his law degree in 2012 from the University of Nebraska-College of Law. He specializes in voting rights and non-profit administration and compliance.

James Whitehorne, U.S. Census Bureau
James Whitehorne currently serves as the Chief of the U.S. Census Bureau’s Redistricting & Voting Rights Data Office. He joined the Census Bureau in April of 2006 and earned an individual Bronze Medal for superior federal service in 2012. Prior to working for the Census Bureau, James worked for five years for the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. Mr. Whitehorne holds both a BA and a BS in Geography, with the Geographic Information System specialty, from the Pennsylvania State University.