A THIRD RAIL ISSUE?

What a coincidence, I just got a 45% raise too – ON MY HEALTH INSURANCE PREMIUM!!

How do they get to vote themselves increases? All who vote for this get voted out next election time.

NOT A BAD SALARY FOR DOING NEXT TO NOTHING!!!

Isn't that why they go in to politics in the first place, to line their pockets? Crooked as a barrel of snakes in a den of iniquity.
WE NEED TO TALK...

• The Institution Matters
  • Place of employment
  • What’s evolving and what’s not
  • Unanswered questions – there’s plenty

• If it makes us uncomfortable, it probably needs addressing.

• Serious questions need serious answers
2019 LEGISLATIVE COMPENSATION LANDSCAPE

BY THE NUMBERS
• National Average: $33,716
• Full-Time Average: $74,186
• Hybrid Average: $29,082
• Part-Time Average: $11,852

NOTABLE DEVELOPMENTS
• 21 states raised salaries (most since 2007 – 22)
• Oklahoma Compensation Board cuts pay 8.8%
• Big raise in NY
• Legislative salaries have not recovered post-recession and remain low in relation to MHI.
• NY has highest salary to MHI ratio (1.7), WY has the lowest (.09).
• Dollar per constituent
  • Average: $0.44
  • Highest: AK ($1.82), HI ($1.48), DE ($1.33)
  • Lowest: TX ($0.01), KY ($0.06), FL ($0.08)
LEGISLATIVE PAY IN THE NEWS

The New York Times

With a $50,000 Raise, N.Y. Lawmakers Would Become Highest Paid in the Nation

Judge allows pay raises, outside income for NY lawmakers
By Bernadette Hogan
June 7, 2019 | 8:53pm | Updated

POLITICS & ELECTIONS

State Lawmakers Unhappy About Their Pay Win Legal Battle in Illinois
BY TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE | JULY 8, 2019 AT 7:25 AM
CENTER FOR LEGISLATIVE STRENGTHENING – NCSL

- Legislative Compensation Information
- Human Resources Guidance
- Compensation Consulting
- Interactive Tools and Databases
- And much much more.....

2019 Seminar on Human Resources: October 23-26

John Mahoney – Center for Legislative Strengthening, NCSL
john.mahoney@ncsl.org
(303) 856 1647
www.ncsl.org/research/about-state-legislatures