Life expectancy is growing. Today we’re celebrating more centenarians than ever before, in the United States, and around the globe. Our ability to live longer, healthier, more productive lives is one of our greatest accomplishments. At AARP, we are exploring the implications of Living to 100. We hope state lawmakers will continue the discussion. The resources listed below can be accessed at www.ncsl.org/livingto100:

Disrupt Aging

- Living 100
  AARP’s go-to site for information on understanding what it will mean for society when it becomes commonplace to live to 100 and beyond

- Disrupting Disparities Michigan Report
  An in-depth study of racial and ethnic disparities among Michiganders 50 and over

- Disrupting Disparities New York Report
  An in-depth study of racial and ethnic disparities among New Yorkers age 50 and over

Caregiving and Health

- Valuing the Invaluable
  A report that updates national and individual state estimates of the economic value of family caregivers and sheds light on the growing impact of uncompensated family caregiving

- Long-Term Care Scorecard
  An interactive tool that measures and ranks State-level data on a wide range of long-term services and supports performance indicators

- Across the States 2018: Profiles of Long-Term Services and Supports
  A compilation reference and analysis of state long-term services and supports in each state

Wealth

- 2017 Longevity Economy: All State Reports
  Discusses the extent and impact of the economic contributions of individuals 50 and older in each state

- The National Longevity Economy
  Discusses the extent and impact of the economic contributions of individuals 50 and older nationwide

- Understanding Public Pensions: A Guide for Elected Officials
  Provides key facts about public pension plans

- The Retirement Savings Gap
  A resource to assess your state retirement savings gaps and the number of workers without access to a workplace retirement plan

- State Fiscal Savings Fact Sheets
  A resource to assess just how much your state could achieve in fiscal savings by helping workers save for retirement
Communities for all Ages

- Livability Index
  An Interactive resource that scores neighborhoods and communities across the U.S. for services and amenities that impact livability

- Where We Live
  A resource that showcases examples of livable communities across the country