Service Sector Growth Erodes Sales Tax Base

Note: Sales tax base includes durable and non-durable goods. Food and beverage purchased for off-premise consumptions are excluded, since most states exempt these purchases from taxation, while food services are included since these are usually taxed. Services include all services except housing and food service.

Source: Bureau of Economic Analysis